Dedication

Barbara Seng, a physically small person, has a giant personality. Involvement is a key word in describing her. Much of her time is spent working on school activities: the coronation, plays, speech festivals, and senior class activities. She is enthusiastic about her interaction with people at Henry Sibley, and it shows!

Students comment on her "concern for people" and say that she "enjoys students". More than just hearing students' voices, Miss Seng really listens to what they're saying.

The "joy of seeing kids open up" is the one thing that Miss Seng looks forward to happening in her classes. Open and honest, Miss Seng is willing to help each student get the most out of her classes.

Her dedication to teaching and enthusiasm for people make Barbara Seng worthy of any dedication. And so, Miss Seng, from the class of 1975, thank you!

Student council

A Forum, Senate, and Executive Board replaced Student Council's traditional structure of two representatives from each homeroom. At the beginning of the year, each of the three classes selected two Senators. Homerooms chose Forum members on a monthly basis. The Executive Board, which included the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Homecoming and Gofa chairpersons, and the newspaper editor met each day during homeroom to discuss school issues.

FHA

Future Homemakers of America were involved in several activities. Some of the money making projects they initiated were cookie sales, cookbook sales, and the spaghetti dinner during GOFA week. Their most important activity was helping elderly and handicapped citizens.

Chess club

While other high school chess teams were practicing and developing their strategies for the year, our team was fighting for existence. The problem was no coach. Finally Mr. Kaplan, Mr. O'Meara, and Mr. Peterson volunteered.

The next issue was how to form a championship team. The answer was found in the sophomore wonder Randy Bauer who, using his extraordinary knowledge of the game, changed a team of less-experienced players into a powerful war machine.

The chess team finished their season with an overwhelming eight wins, no losses and a four draw record, to become the 1974-75 Metropolitian Chess Champions.

Table tennis

An undefeated team of determined players entered the State Tournament and captured the 2nd place trophy in the AA Division. Bob Hunter and Captain Greg Pates made the All State Team. The rest of the team included Jeff Tourek, John Hewitt, and substitutes Jeff Biermaier and Ken Dropik, who subbed for Jeff Tourek in the Championships.

Warriorettes

After two years without Warriorettes, eight sophomores decided to re-establish the group. With the help of their advisor, Miss Morgan, they choreographed their big hit, a routine to "California Dreamin'" In addition, they made and paid for their own uniforms and pom-poms.

Because they had a late start in practicing, they only performed at the basketball games. Next year they plan to add football games to their schedule.

Throughout the year, girls clad in red and gold were seen cheering on our teams, singing the school song at pep fests, making and putting up posters, and generally trying to create waves of enthusiasm wherever they went.

What wasn't seen was a week at cheerleading camp, regular meetings with their new advisors, brownies baked for teams at midnight, decorations hastily put on players' lockers, some new friendships formed, old fights refought, and a few tears.

Debate

To top off a record-setting year, senior debaters Helen Fisk and Dwight Rabuse captured the first place trophy at the Golden Anniversary National Speech and Debate Tournament in Indianapolis. At the end of the 5 day tournament, Dwight and Helen had beaten 95 teams from 48 states to become the first Minnesota team to win the National Championship. In addition, Helen was the first girl to participate in a championship round since 1957. The students debated the resolution, Resolved: That the United States should significantly change the method of selecting Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates. The team, coached by Mr. Bucher, won a total of 13 first place trophies, a number unmatched in the past.

The frustration of lost pictures and pages,
The disagreements among a diverse staff,
The late nights of slaving to meet deadlines,
The anxiety of seeing the blue proofs,
The disappointment of working for no academic credit,
The problem of identifying unfamiliar faces,
The surprise party for Carole, our editor,
The responsibility of producing a $9000 book,
The satisfaction of seeing the finished product,
And a sigh of relief when it's all over,
Combined to give this year's Keewavdin staff
An experience they will never forget.

Thespians

Twenty-seven kids were initiated into Thespians, Initiation was the largest and most elaborate one that Sibley has ever had. The activities included wearing unmatched shoes and socks, saying "May I", to fellow Thespians and exhibiting a large paper "T" on shirts.

Members: J. Snyder, A. Funk, C. Spohn, C. Akerlind, G. Kubat, C. Berndt, B. Anderson, P. Webber, M. Lund, R. Martin, W. Tongen, K. Dolinar, J. Bayer, N. Robertson, A. Peting, K. Kelly, K. Olson, C. # Speech

After hours of talking in front of mirrors and practicing for Miss Seng, nineteen students from Sibley participated in speech festivals this year.

The hard work netted many ribbons. Dwight Rabuse took first honors in extemporanous. Speaking in the State Contest Colleen Degan, Bob Phelps, and Perry Swenson represented Sibley in the Regional Contest. Mary Yee participated in the District Contest.

Gridders draw enthusiastic crowds

Sibley fans cheered on a strong-willed team as the Warriors rolled up a 6-3 record, the most wins since the school began varsity competition. Co-Captains Dudley Olson and Dean Anderson led the team through a season that ranged from a triumphant win over Park to a disappointing Homecoming loss caused by a late touchdown score.

Team highlights included shutting out South St. Paul and Eisenhower, winning a tough game over Mariner in which Mike Lehmann actually showed some emotion, winning Park for the first time in the history of the school. running hills until Coach Chambers was tired, singing "Delta Dawn," and adopting the motto, "Root hog or die," along with the old favorite "Eat 'em up, spit 'em out, chew-chew-chew."

During the season Coach Chambers emphasized to the team, "Don't cheat your bodies and your bodies won't cheat you." With this inspiration, the '74 team leaves a challenge for those who follow.

Nylons support girls swimming

The Wondrous Warrior Waterwomen, who finished their record 5-3-1, swam through the season wearing pantyhose during practice. Why? Because the pantyhose held water which made the girls' legs heavier. This made the girls work harder to strengthen their legs to gain speed.

Eight girls went to regionals this year: Ann McGough, Cathy Cowley, Sue Punch, Ann Paulson, Mary Kuckler, Jodi Hartzell, Tracy Louder, and Cathy Wondra.

Ruth Harris and Kathy Stevenson were included with the guys' cross country team.

Harriers have rebuilding year

The Cross Country squad, dominated by underclassmen, had rough going in meets this year, but the enthusiasm bodes well for the future.

Cager's improvement revealed at end of season as they dribbled into Region semi-finals

After losing their first six games and looking dismal, the Warriors rebounded strongly, winning their four final conference games. They made a strong bid for the Region G title and a berth in the State Tournament. In Region G play they beat Kellogg and Columbia Heights, but then lost to eventual Region champ, Highland Park in a fiercely contested battle, 46-41.

The squad finished in fourth place in the conference standings. All-conference award went to Russ Nelson. Honorable mentions went to Chris Dalhed and Dave Mastbaum.

Ambitious mat men pin hopes on young talent

Wrestling had a young squad with a lot of potential. Tom Clawson, senior captain and leading scorer was the District 14 Champ representing the Warriors at the State Tournament in the spring. He was undefeated in the conference, and 27-3 overall—the most matches won by a Sibley wrestler in a season. His career record of 35-8-1 is also a school mark.

Other outstanding wrestlers were sophomore Jay Amundson and juniors Tom Redding and Paul Norman.

The B-grapplers also had a super season with a 5-2-1 conference record and a 8-3-1 overall. Jim Schuster was voted Most Dedicated and Shawn Finnegan was named Most Outstanding.

Girl cagers jump into action

The 1975 girls' basketball team ended their season with a 5-5 record, which can be attributed to the enthusiasm of the team and the outstanding coaching of Joel Andrychowicz, Shelly Medernach and captain, Donna Rued, were the top scorers. In the first round of region playoffs the team lost to North High, who went onto win the region title.

The Harding game-

The fans, knowing that it would be a rebuilding year, were skeptical. No one suspected how successful our team would become. With new region boundaries, the Warriors skated past Johnson and Harding to earn the Region 4 title and a trip back to the State Tournament.

Earlier in the season the team seemed to lack consistency, but leading scorers Pete Doyle and Chris Walker, backed by a strong defensive unit, pulled the Warriors together to earn state- wide recognition for Sibley for the third consecutive year.

Pete Doyle and super defenseman, Glenn Van were named all conference. Honorable mentions went to Dave Kastner, Tim Fangle, Mark Lewis, Chris Walker, and to our outstanding goal tenders, Pat Farrington and Tom Kulenkamp.

Swinging golfers end in sixth place

Ray Hazuka, the golf team's only returning letterman, maintained a low score throughout the year. Ray, along with Senior Mike Mallinger, qualified for regional competition. The rest of the varsity team consisted of three sophomores and one junior.

Sophomore Mark Wild had the lowest round of the year with an even par. Based on his stroke average, he was chosen Most Valuable Player. The team ended the season with sixth place in the district.

Boys' track — a year of record-breaking

The track team broke many school records. All-Conference Bruce Westby broke the pole vaulting record with 13'8". Russ Nelson's high jump of 6'3" was a record, and he was also named All-Conference. Eric Lukes was All-Conference in the long jump and in the 220. Co-captains Mark Capecchi and Randy Bergen played an important part on the relay teams. They ended second in the Rosemount Invitational and placed fifth in the conference.

No. 1 rated team wins suburban crown

The Suburban Conference Champs started an exceptional season by edging So. St. Paul 9-8 with three runs in the last inning. They continued their championship drive, nipping No. St. Paul 4-3, as Kerry Multz drove in the winning run. Another challenge came during a ten inning game against Mariner in which Pete Olson scored to give Sibley a 7-6 win. Sibley had come from three runs behind in the eighth inning to prolong the game until they got the victory. Winning non-conference games against highly rated teams, such as Red Wing, Cretin, and St. Thomas, added prestige to the Warriors 12-3 overall record.

The pressure of being ranked No. 1 in the state since the start of the year threatened the team as they entered the district tournament. Against Concordia, the top-ranked squad fell 4-3 and were eliminated from tournament play.

Pete Olson was the leading hitter with a .462 average. Kerry Multz and Chris Dalhed also hit above .400 in the conference play. John Rouse was the main pitcher, allowing only 7 earned runs in 44 innings. His unique style was appreciated by his teammates as they selected him as the Most Valuable Player. Mike Lehmann was invited to play in the first annual All-State Baseball Series. Chris Dalhed, Pete Olson, John Rouse, Kerry Multz, and Mike Lehmann were named All-Conference. Honorable Mention went to Jeff Tourek and Mark Nyman.

SUDDEN LIFE

(Opposite Sex)

Queen Nancy and Her Royal Court Reign Over Homecoming 1974 Coronation and Pepfest

Dead silence fell upon the overpacked auditorium. The lights dimmed. Reigning Queen Vicki Olson slowly circled the seven princesses. Suddenly a tremendous roar split the silence as the crowd applauded their new queen Nancy Robertson. The octet began to sing "Sweet Heart of Sibley High."

Earlier that day, girls could be seen running around wearing curlers and carrying long formal dresses, each hoping for the title of Homecoming Queen.

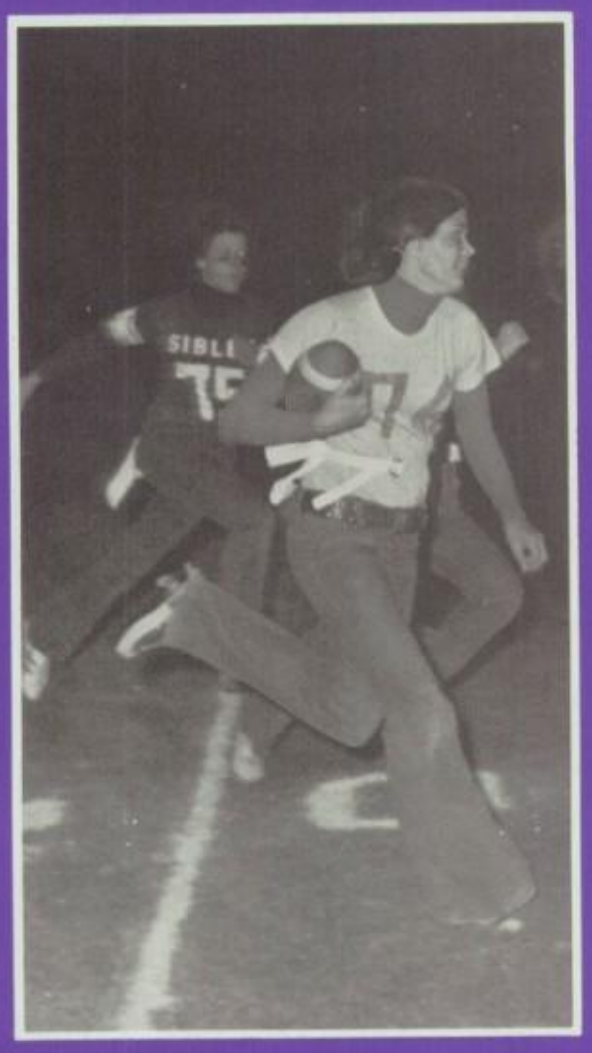
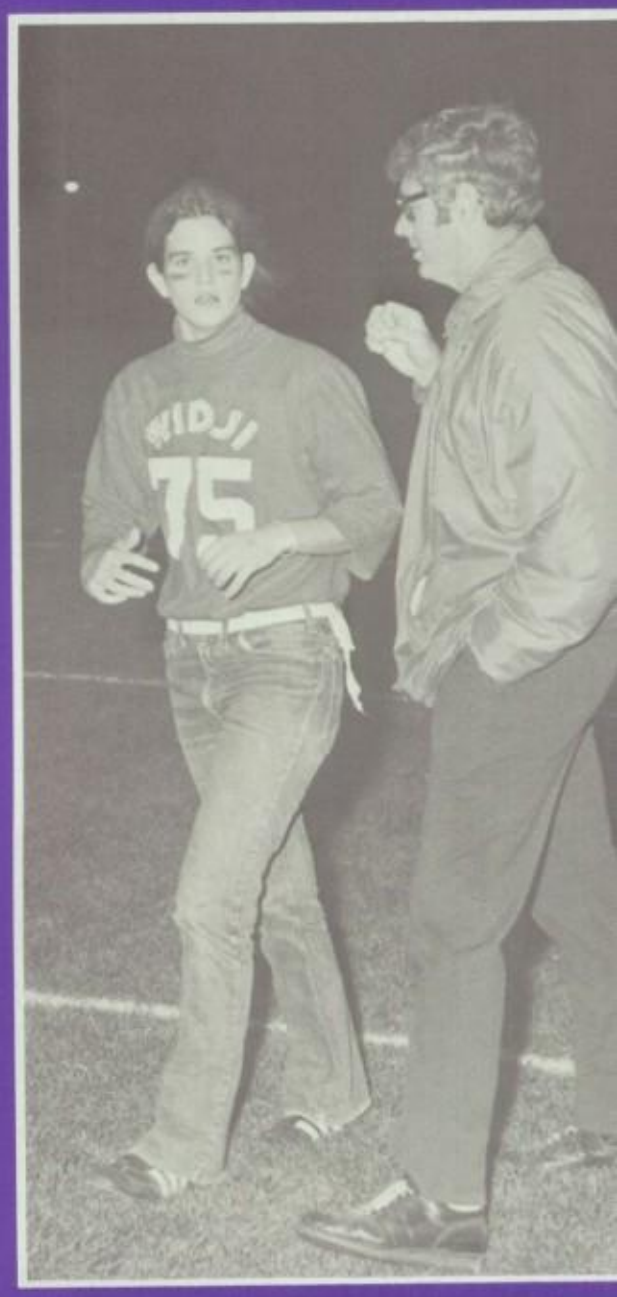
The princesses and their escorts were Gretchen Schaberg and Dwight Rabuse, Diane Greengo and Kerry Multz, Mary Warnert and Ward Maser, Nancy Robertson and Dean Anderson, Joan Berg and Chip Hovland, Jill Cascalenda and Russ Nelson, and Liz Lauritsen and Randy Bergen.

Mark Nyman was picked the cutest, most kissable baby and had the privilege to be kissed by the new queen. Dudley Olson, Dean Anderson, and Mike Lehmann were knighted Mighty Warriors and were given the game ball.





During halftime Coach Livgard attempts to lift the spirits of the losing juniors.

After long hours of planning and practicing, both the junior and senior powderpuff teams revealed their amateur football skills to their fellow students and other spectators. The juniors engaged in rough and tough competition as the seniors fled to victory. Shelly Medernach was the quarterback and top scorer for the senior team.

The senior powderpuff girls continued the tradition of last year by selecting a Powderpuff Chief at halftime. The 1974 honor went to Dudley Olson.

Sibley turns Italian

With the same theme, the same menu, and the same price, but a whole new set of juniors making meatballs, serving spaghetti, pouring coffee, wiping tables, and washing dishes, the class of '76 held the most successful junior dinner in several years. By serving 2100 people, nearly $1700.00 was raised for the junior class fund.

Girls! Put on your socks and grab your favorite guy

Have you ever been to a dance without a band or a pair of shoes? Add a record player, a pair of socks, a group of enthusiastic kids, and a Sadie Hawkins Soc Hop is underway. Girls finally had a chance to ask the guys they've had their eyes on. This was such a successful dance that it will certainly be continued next year.

'Our Town': a unique experience

"Do human beings ever realize life while they live it?" This was the main theme of the theatre department's fall play, "Our Town." Over 800 people experienced this unique production done without set or props, leaving the audience's imagination to create the scenes. Taking place in a small rural town at the b ginning of the twentieth century, t play takes the audience through t lives of two young people, Geor and Emily. The scenes are set a narrated by the stage manager w moves about, in, and at times b comes part of the audience.

hange from the usual play fare, the tudents enjoyed the play, com- nenting that it was easy to put your- elf into the role because the char- cters could be real people. Alth- ough it didn't draw a large audience, hose who did come were rewarded y a rich, thoughtful experience.

GOFA rolls in the bucks —$5114

What was GOFA week? For Mr. Monico it was a chocalate cream pie in the face. The juniors seniors and juniors pooled $800 for the pleasure of throwing the pie at him. Mark Tuszka downed 8 bananas, more than anyone else, and Dave Kastner won the 7-up drinking contest gulping down 12 cups.

For many it was emptying their pockets to this year's charity, The Little Sisters of the Poor. Money came from all sources, Jhoon Rhee Karate, Mom's Apple Pie, "buy out" of classes, gofa grams, treasure hunt, the new powder puff hockey game (a slaughter by the seniors), the auction, and the final 40's and 50' dance.

Others spent the week trying to express themselves by dressing up for Ugly Day, Clash Day, Traffic Day, Sports Day, or 40's and 50's Day.

Some thought that GOFA week was a big "yolk". For every $20 collected, an egg was cracked on the Guys greased their hair back, rolled their jeans up, and got out their leather jackets and sunglasses while the girls tied their hair in ponytails, smothered their lips with lipstick, put on their bobby socks and loafers, and came drag or stag to the dance, a successful end to GOFA week.

MY FAIR LADY most elaborate

production ever

The cast of "My Fair Lady" was pleased to hear their production described as a "good show," the highest praise a play can merit. The words mean that every part of the play was good. The play which was presented on the 15th, 17th, 18th, and 19th of April starred Anne Funk and Bob Michaud.

The rehearsal given for Sr. Citizens was not without its problems, however: One woman's hearing aid accidently interfered with the sound system. Joe Stephani, the butler, took the door off the set and yet remained in character. At Thursday's performance, Alfred P. Doolittle, split his trousers; and the set for the garden scene got stuck on Saturday night.

The overall effect was spectacular. One hundred and fifty students, sixty of whom were actually on stage, spent innumerable hours on sets, costumes, make up and rehearsals.

"Just a dream away . . ."

MERLE ANN

She had a smile for every one and every one knew her name.
She spread a lot of sunshine but she went away.

Why did she go?
Tell me why did she
have to go?

If there were more people like her the world would be a better place;
they'd put a stop
to the fighting,
and help each other
through the day.

Why did she go?
Tell me why did she
have to go?

God had the plan
to take her away
Maybe he was right.
He left it up to you and me to spread sunshine along the way.

Why did she go?
Tell me why did she
have to go?

— Sharon Schmidt

In Memory of

Merle Ann Spurr

Born · November 15, 1956

Died · June 20, 1974

Merle Spurr was an A student who belonged to the National Honor Society, the Creative Writing Club and the Spanish Club here at Sibley. She loved music and played the organ and guitar and also wrote, composed, and sang her own songs.

In her spare time Merle went to several hospitals and rest homes where she entertained patients with her guitar. She was also an active hockey fan and liked to skate and horseback ride as well as follow horse racing.

She left behind many friends and memories.

She is sadly missed by all of us.

Reason for tardy:

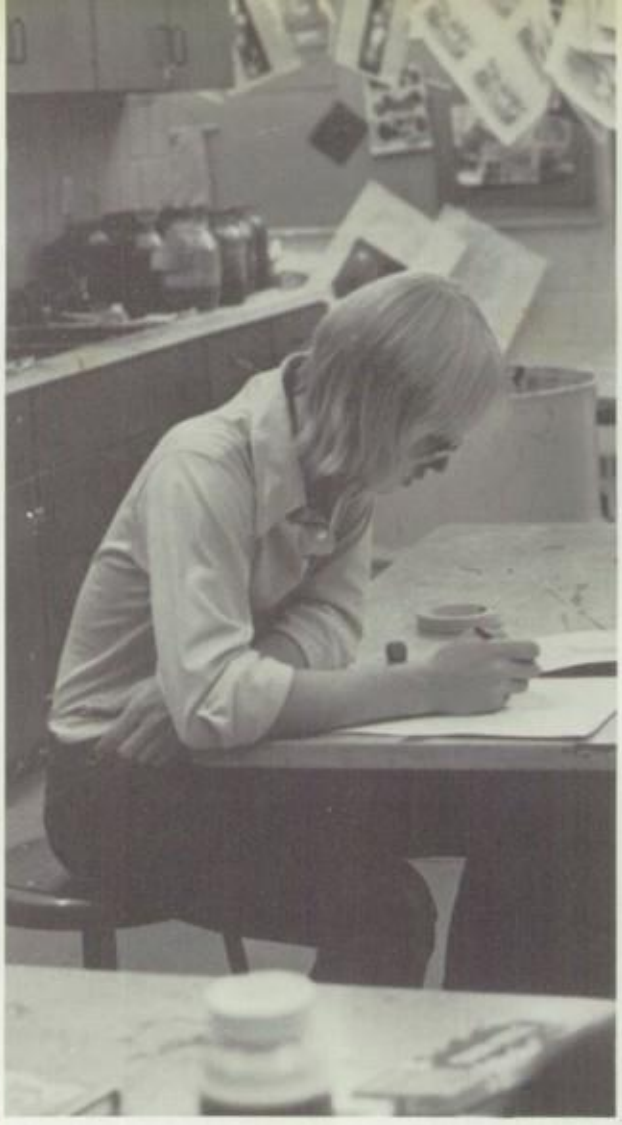
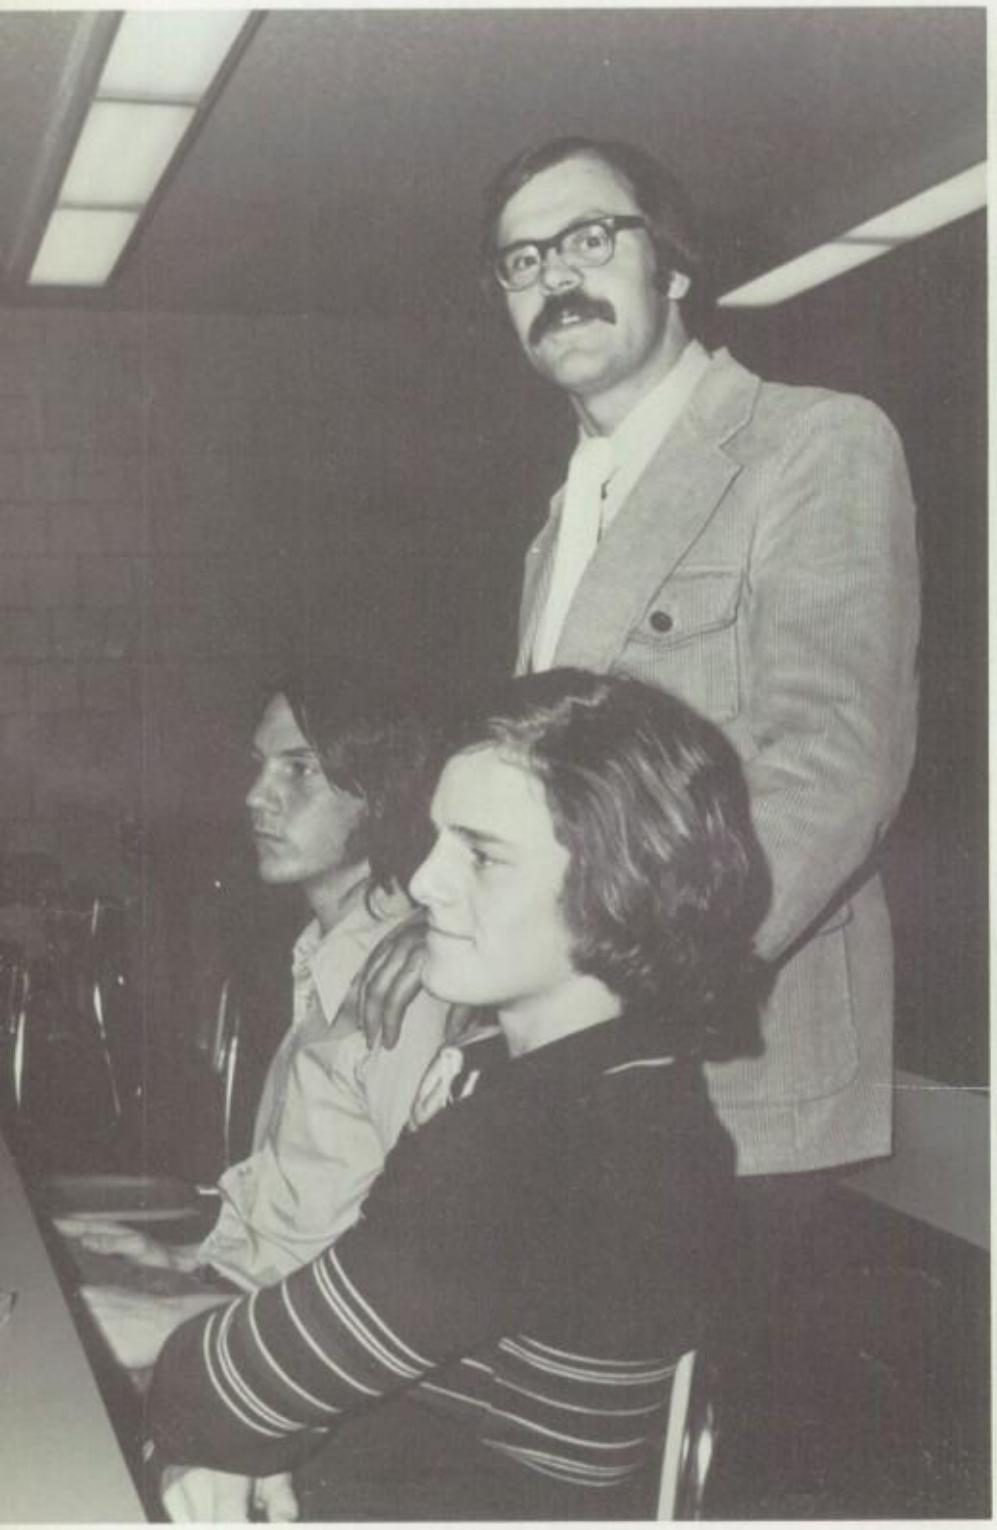
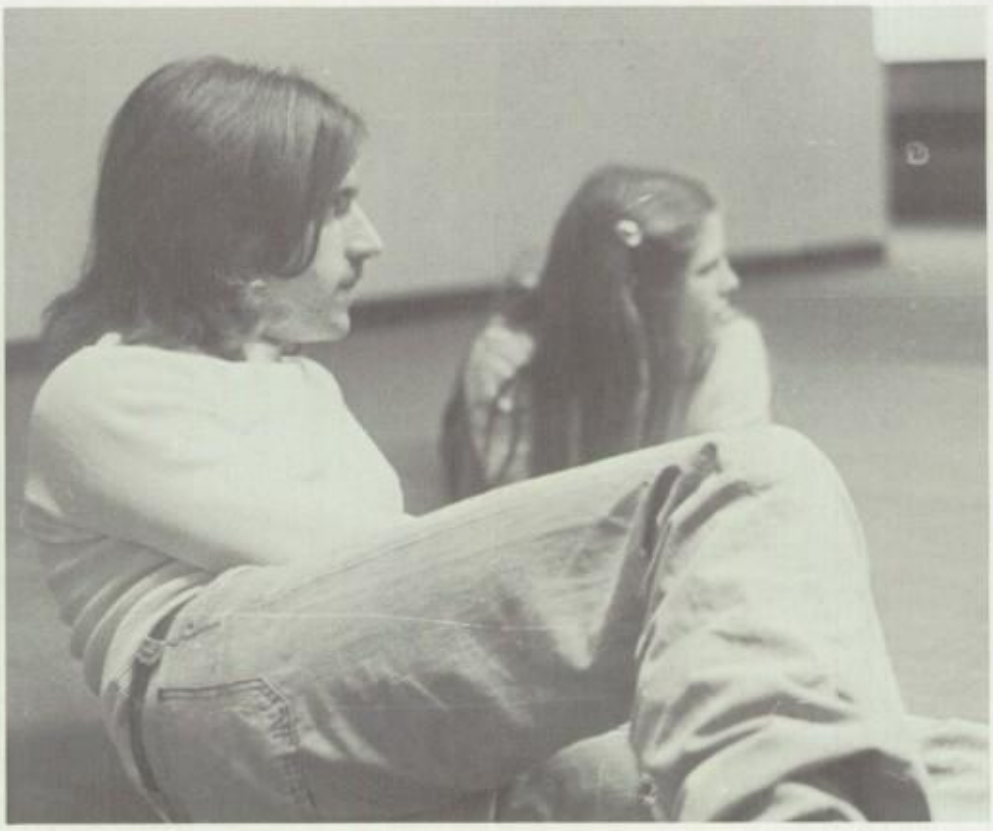
— Getting ready to leave town tonight.
— Flat tire.
— Ran out of gas.
— Cookie monster got me.
— In library.
— Lost contacts.
— Cops stopped me on the way to school fo D.V.I.
— Was talking to someone.
— Felt sick.
— Ride was late.
— Personal.
— I left walking for school. My brother forgot to chain up the dog. Our dog followed me to the highway and I had to drag her home.
— Got a late start!
— In guidance.
— What difference does it make?
— Late.
— I had to do something for my dad.
— Over slept. Worked late last night.
— In nurse's office.
— Dropped books.
— I did not make the bus so I had to walk.
— I don't know.
— Job interview.
— Car would not start. Bad starter.
— I drove too slow.
— I have to walk to school because we sold our other cars, and now I don't have a car to drive to school.
— No excuse.
— Meeting at work — on-the-job-training.
— Speculating upon changes which will be brought about by the new regime — the new priorities, social order, power structure, etc.
— Sick this morning.
— Over sleeped. (sic)
— My mom sprained her ankle last night, and I had to do some stuff for her this morning.
— Overslept in the shower.
— My ride to school failed to come. If this is not good enough, please call 224-9000.
— Missed bus.
— I purposely (sic) over-slept, I was up until after 1:00 a.m. doing home work!
— To find out election outcome.

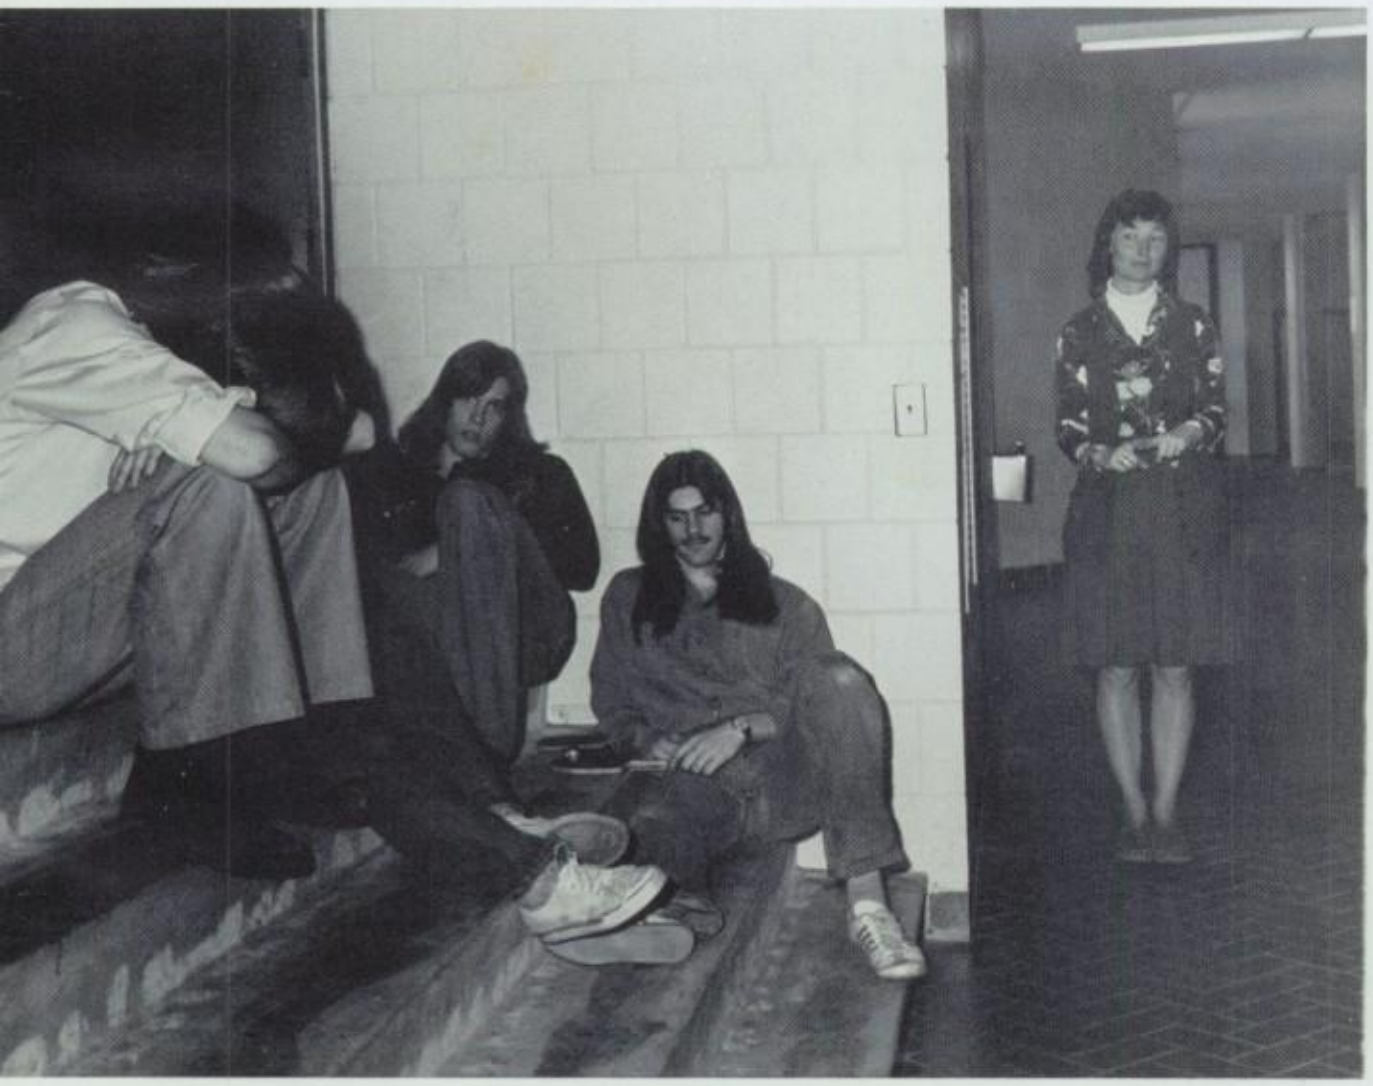


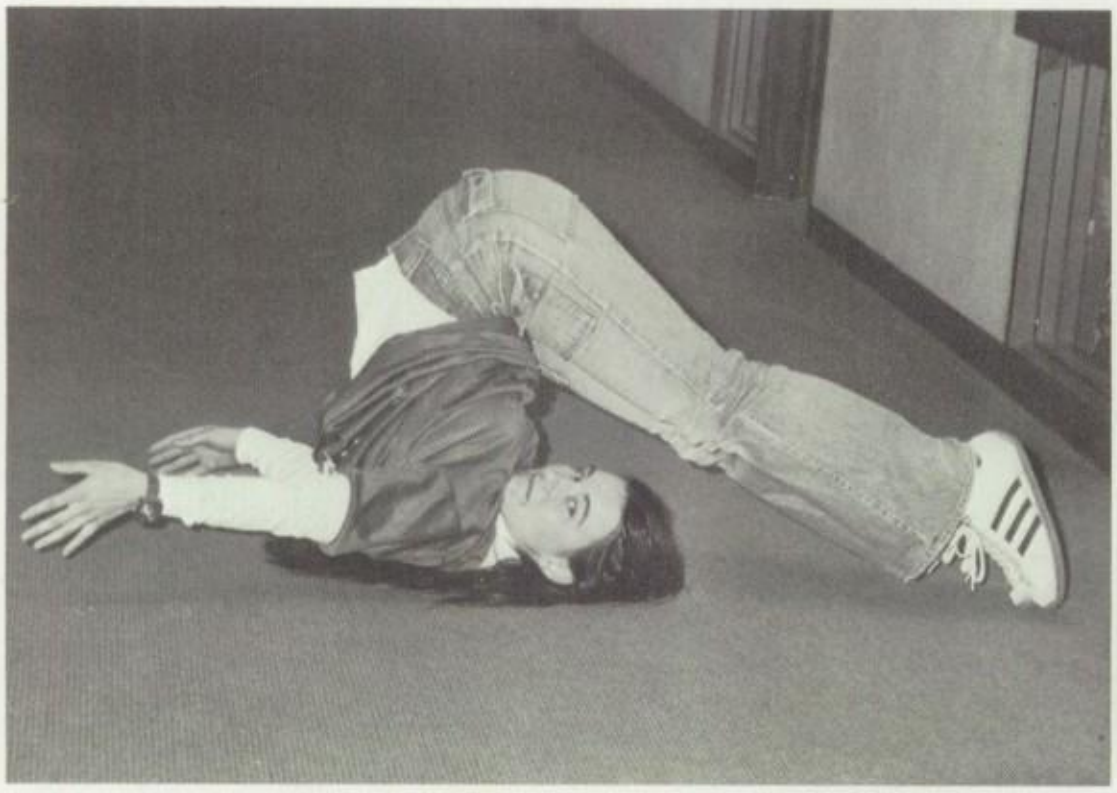
Remember
Looking forward to Wednesday's spaghetti lunch,
But finding there was none left for third shift.
Skipping out to go to Mac's for lunch,
But returning to Mr. Larsen's open arms.
Dressing up for G.O.F.A.,
But seeing someone else wearing your costume.
Wanting to hear a good song between classes,
But listening to "How Much is That Doggie in the Window?"
Screaming your lungs out at a hockey game,
But feeling you have no voice left for tomorrow.
Thinking Spring has finally arrived,
But facing another blizzard.
Waiting impatiently for Graduation,
But regretting the sadness of good-byes.

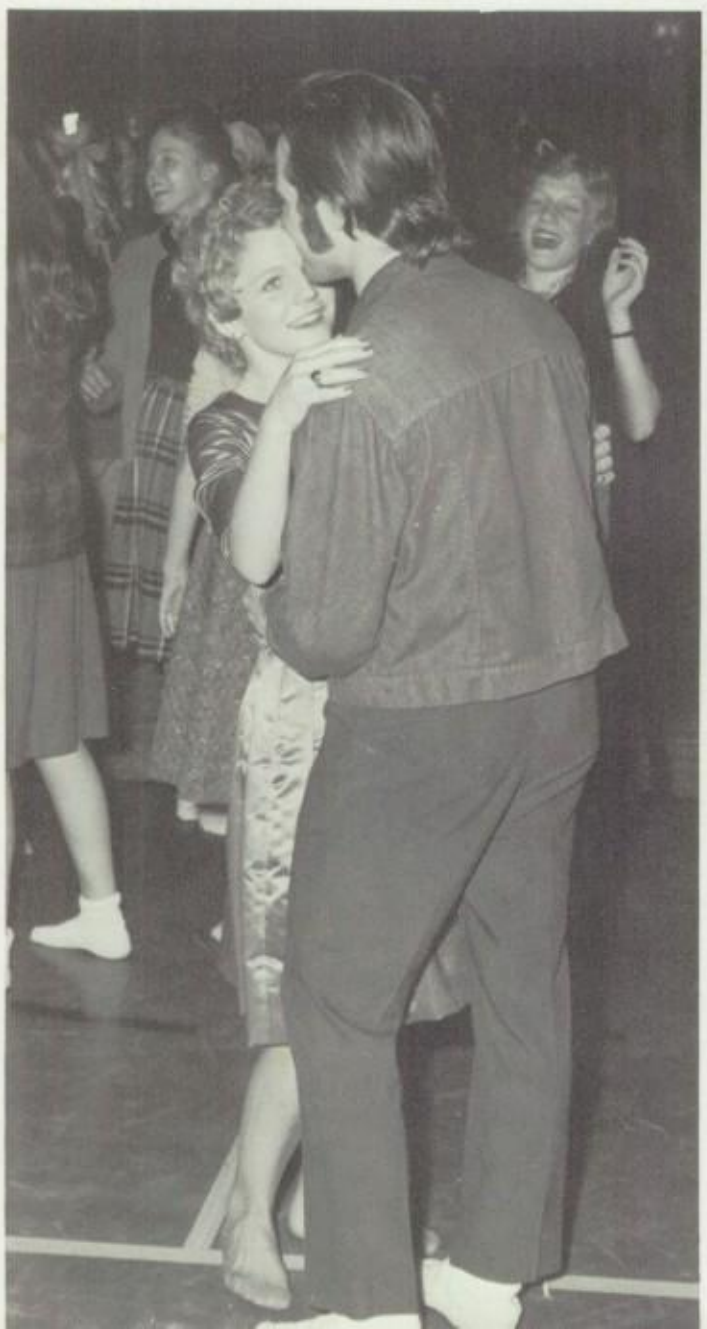


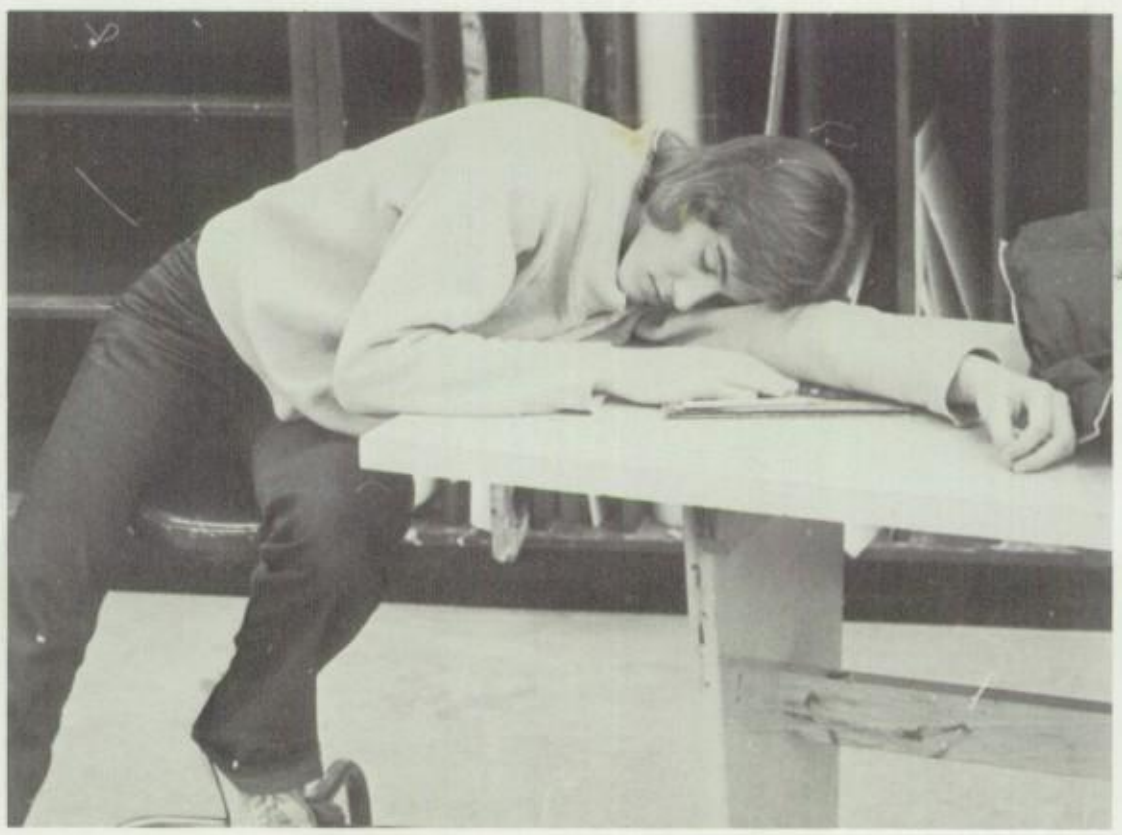


FIRE









With a sigh of relief
We can gaze back
And remember
What life was like
And think, that in the future
There will never be a time
Like in the past.
